Spring 2012 Senior Survey

In Spring 2012, the economics majors who graduated in May 2012 were asked to respond to a survey of occupational and educational pursuits. The following is a summary of the results.

Responses
Number of students asked to respond to graduate survey...... 232
Number of students who responded..................................... 41

Interviews & Job Offers
Number of students pursuing jobs before graduation............. 37
Average number of interviews granted........................................ 2.6
Average number of job offers received........................................ 1.0

Top Job Locations
New York ......................................................................... 6
Atlanta/Washington............................................................. 4

Salaries
Number of students who revealed their salaries..................... 17
Average of starting base salaries........................................ 58,000
Maximum salary of disclosed salaries................................. Around 90,000
Minimum salary of disclosed salaries..................................... Less than 25,000

Type of Company
Number of students who stated companies of jobs received 18

Breakdown of types of companies:
1) Financial 17
2) Advertising/Sales 1

Top Educational Pursuit in Fall 2012
1) Graduate School 4
Cambridge University, Columbia University, Graduate Institute in International and Development Studies, Emory