

EMORY

Department of Economics

ECONOMICS 4+1 BA/MS PROGRAM

Learn economic theory, quantitative methods, econometrics, and data analytics

- Stem-designated master's program
- World class faculty
- Innovative curriculum
- Learn skills needed for highly coveted, high-paying analytical jobs

For more information:

Scan the QR code below:

Economics 4+1 Program Website Link

ECONOMICS 4+1 BA/MS PROGRAM

PROGRAM STRUCTURE COURSEWORK INCLUDES

Senior Year: 3 Foundations Courses

- Econ 526 (3 hours): Quantitative Methods I
- Econ 725 (3 hours): Computer Programming & Data Management in Economics
- Econ 520 (3 hours): Data Sciences for Economics

+1 Year: 3 Required Courses

- Econ 521 (4 hours): Econometrics of Policy-Analysis & Causal-Inference
- Econ 522 (4 hours): Forecasting and Macroeconomic Analytics
- Econ 524 (4 hours): Big Data Econometrics
- Econ 540 (3 hours): Empirical Writing and Communication

+1 Year: Elective Courses

- * You will only be required to take two of the elective listed.
- * The listed electives may not be offered every semester.

- Econ 541 (3 hours): Pricing and Revenue Management
- Econ 542 (3 hours): Transfer Pricing
- Econ 543 (3 hours): Cost-Benefit Analysis
- Econ 544 (3 hours): Internet Economics
- Econ 570 (3 hours): Health Economics I
- Econ 571 (3 hours): Health Economics II
- Econ 599 (6 hours): Thesis Research

MINIMUM ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

- Current junior standing
- Recommended cumulative GPA of 3.5
- By the end of the student's junior year, completion of the following foundational courses: Math 111, Econ 101, 112, 201, 212, 220, 320 and one select economics elective

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Statement of purpose
- Resume
- Two letters of recommendation
- Transcript
- No application fee

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

Natalie Jones, Masters Programs Coordinator
Email: natalie.jones3@emory.edu

OR

 Dr. Sara Markowitz, Winship Distinguished Research Professor of Economics and Director of Economics 4+1 Program
Email: sara.markowitz@emory.edu

EMORY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Department of Economics