

Cartooning for Peace and Health Returns to Emory University

You are invited to attend a Cartoon-Off with
Jean PLANTU of Le Monde and Mike Luckovich of the Atlanta Journal Constitution

When: 3:30PM-4:30PM
Wed. Sept. 25, 2024

Where: Rollins School of Public Health (RSPH)
Margaret H. Rollins Room
R. Randall Rollins Building
Plaza Level, 1518 Clifton Road, NE
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

Register to attend as capacity is limited: <https://forms.gle/o81Zca112x4PKQEV7>

Sponsored by The Consulate General of France in Atlanta, France Atlanta 2024,
Rollins School of Public Health, Department of Pediatrics, Emory's Center for AIDS Research
Emory College of Arts & Sciences: Center for the Study of Human Health, Departments of Economics, Political Science, Anthropology, English, Film & Media, French & Italian, Middle East & South Asian Studies \(MESAS\), Russian & East Asian Languages & Cultures \(REALC\)

When Cartooning for Peace and Health was last at Emory University in 2012, one of the highlights of the program was the cartoon-off between Plantu and Mike Luckovich. They each spoke and addressed questions from the audience on important global issues and challenges while rapidly drawing images that reflected their thoughts, captivating the audience.

They return to Emory University on Sept. 25, 2024, for a cartoon-off not to be missed.