

Undergraduate Program: Fall 2018-Spring 2019 Senior Survey

In Fall 2018 and Spring 2019, the Economics majors who graduated in these respective semesters were asked to respond to a survey of occupational and educational pursuits at the time they applied for graduation.

The following is a summary of these results:

Responses

Students Asked to Respond: 220

Students Who Responded: 194

Internships

Students Who Received an Internship: 122

- Average Number of Internships Per Student – 2.19
- 68.42% completed at least 2 internships

Interviews and Job Offers

Students Pursuing Jobs After Graduation: 162

82% of Students Received Interviews – 133

- Average Number of Interviews Per Student – 3.27

75% of Students Received Job Offers – 122

- Average Number of Job Offers Per Student – 1.81

Top Job Locations

- Atlanta
- New York City
- Washington DC

Salaries

Students Who Disclosed Salaries: 35

- Average Base Salary: $69,903
- Maximum Salary Disclosed: $100,000

Primary Industries

- Consulting
- Finance
- Marketing/Advertising
- Public Policy/Law
- Data Analytics
- Investment Banking

Top 3 Graduate Pursuits

- Law School
- Medical School
- MBA