

Undergraduate Program: Fall 2019-Spring 2020 Senior Survey

In Fall 2019 and Spring 2020, the Economics majors who graduated in these respective semesters were asked to respond to a survey of occupational and educational pursuits at the time they applied for graduation.

The following is a summary of these results:

Responses

Students Asked to Respond: 213

Students Who Responded: 196

Internships

Students Who Received an Internship: 163

- Average Number of Internships Per Student – 2.01
- 72.26% completed at least 2 internships

Interviews and Job Offers

Students Pursuing Jobs After Graduation: 136

89% of Students Received Interviews – 122

- Average Number of Interviews Per Student – 3.06

64% of Students Received Job Offers – 79

- Average Number of Job Offers Per Student – 1.57

Top Job Locations

- New York
- Atlanta
- California
- Washington DC

Salaries

Students Who Disclosed Salaries: 42

- Average Base Salary: $69,009
- Maximum Salary Disclosed: $120,000

Primary Industries

- Public Policy/Law
- Consulting
- Data Analytics
- Finance
- Investment Banking
- Marketing/Advertising

Graduate Pursuits

Students Pursuing Jobs After Graduation: 136

Top Graduate Pursuits

- Law School
- Public Health
- Business Analytics
- Computer/Information Science
- Public Policy
- MBA

Top Graduate Schools

- University of Pennsylvania
- London School of Economics
- Northeastern University
- Columbia University
- University of Oxford
- Duke University