

Undergraduate Program: Fall 2020-Spring 2021 Senior Survey

In Fall 2020 and Spring 2021, the Economics majors who graduated in these respective semesters were asked to respond to a survey of occupational and educational pursuits at the time they applied for graduation.

The following is a summary of these results:

Responses

Students Asked to Respond: 194

Students Who Responded: 149

Internships

Students Who Received an Internship: 83

- Average Number of Internships Per Student – 1.27
- 73% completed at least 2 internships

Interviews and Job Offers

Students Pursuing Jobs After Graduation: 97

67% of Students Received Interviews – 65

- Average Number of Interviews Per Student – 2.33

42% of Students Received Job Offers – 41

- Average Number of Job Offers Per Student – .96

Top Job Locations

- New York
- Atlanta
- Chicago
- Washington DC

Salaries

Students Who Disclosed Salaries: 21

- Average Base Salary: $85,263
- Maximum Salary Disclosed: $160,000

Primary Industries

- Public Policy/Law
- Consulting
- Data Analytics
- Finance
- Investment Banking
- Marketing/Advertising

Graduate Pursuits

Students Pursuing Graduate School After Graduation: 66

Top Graduate Pursuits

- Law School
- Public Health
- Business Analytics
- Computer/Information Science
- Public Policy
- MBA

Top Graduate Schools

- Harvard University
- Yale University
- University of Pennsylvania
- Northeastern University
- Columbia University
- Duke University