

Undergraduate Program: Fall 2021-Spring 2022 Senior Survey

In Fall 2021 and Spring 2022, the Economics majors who graduated in these respective semesters were asked to respond to a survey of occupational and educational pursuits at the time they applied for graduation.

The following is a summary of these results:

Responses

Students Asked to Respond: 268

Students Who Responded: 224

Internships

Students Who Received an Internship: 151

- Of students who completed an internship:
- Average number of internships is 1.74
- 58% completed at least 2 internships

Interviews and Job Offers

Students Pursuing Jobs After Graduation: 154

96% of Students Received Interviews

- Average Number of Interviews Per Student is 2.86

60% of Students Received Job Offers

- Average Number of Job Offers Per Student is 1.07

Top Job Locations

- New York
- Atlanta
- Dallas
- San Francisco
- Washington DC

Salaries

Students Who Disclosed Salaries: 42

- Average Base Salary: $87,630
- Maximum Salary Disclosed: $200,000

Primary Industries

- Investment Banking
- Management Consulting
- Data Analytics
- Investment Analytics
- Finance
- Marketing

Graduate Pursuits

Students Pursuing Graduate School After Graduation: 92

Top Graduate Pursuits

- Business Analytics
- Computer/Information Science
- Public Health
- Public Policy
- MBA

Top Graduate Schools

- University of Pennsylvania
- Georgetown Law
- Notre Dame
- NYU
- Imperial College London
- Northeastern University
- Columbia University
- Emory